C1

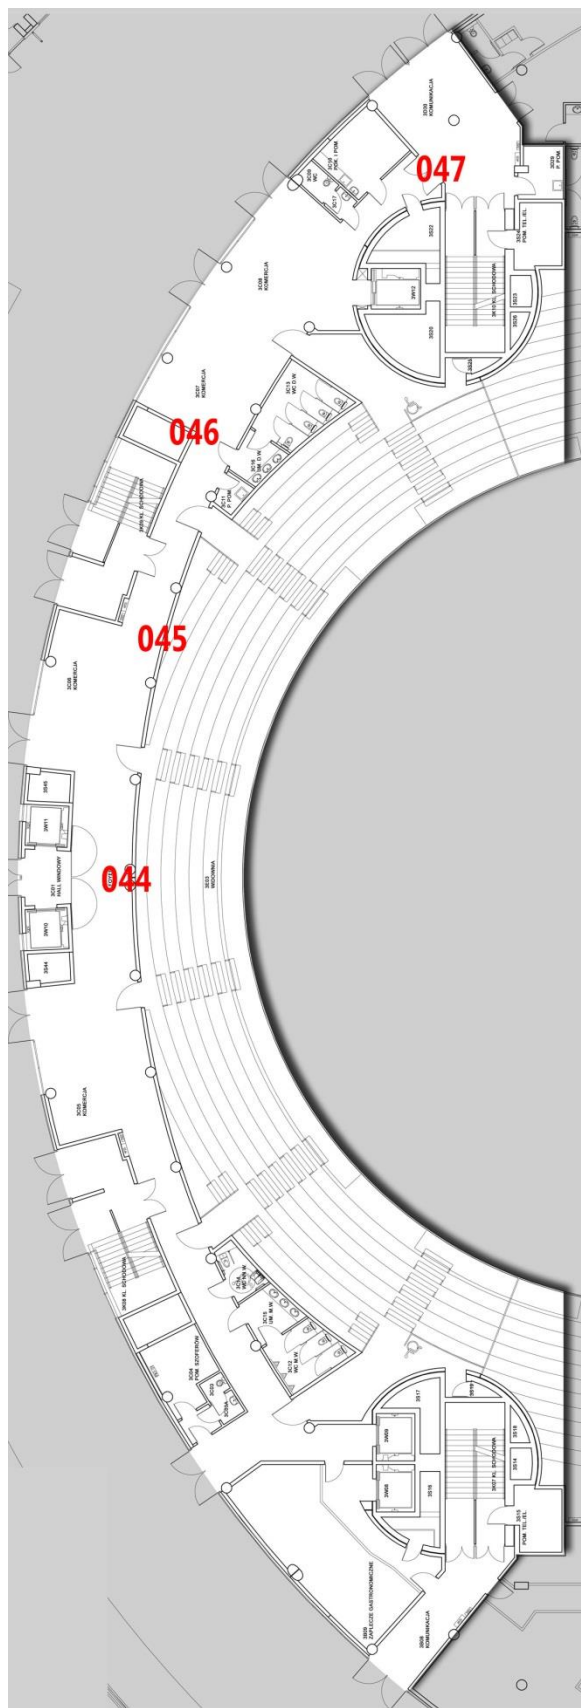

Architectural floor plan of the first floor of a building. The plan shows a large central hall (1000) and several smaller rooms, including a kitchen (1001), a bathroom (1002), and a storage room (1003). The plan is oriented with a large 'C1' in the top right corner. Rooms are labeled with numbers and names in Finnish. Three specific areas are highlighted with red numbers: 072, 073, and 074. The plan includes a large central hall, several smaller rooms, and a complex network of corridors. The building's layout is irregular, with a large open space on the left and a more structured area on the right.
